Featured Soloist

Pianist Hee-Kyung Juhn made her orchestral debut at the age of 16, playing Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1 with the Orquesta Sinfonica de la Ciudad de Asucion. Hee-Kyung attended the Julliard School (MM), and has participated in music festivals such as Tanglewood, Aspen, Bowdoin, and Yale Piano Summer Institute. At Indiana University (DM), she studied with Leonard Hokanson, a pupil of legendary pianist Artur Schnabel.

In addition to numerous solo and chamber appearances,

Hee-Kyung has collaborated with many outstanding musicians and has appeared on concert stages in South America, Asia, and throughout the United States. She is the newly appointed Director of Keyboard Studies at Henderson State University. She has previously taught at the University of California at Santa Barbara (from 2001 to 2007), and has served as associate faculty in the Collaborative Piano at the Music Academy of the West in Santa Barbara.

Her recording of the Goldberg Variations is available from www.amazon.com, www.msacd.com and others.
