I would like to thank the music faculty for making my music education enjoyable, as well as enlightening. A very special thanks to Mr. Don Kramer and Mr. Wendell Evanson for their teaching and motivational skills which have brought me to this point. My appreciation to Mr. Thomas Chase for his qualities of willingness, patience, and endurance over the last four years.

This recital presented as partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Bachelor of Music Education degree.

We would like to express our gratitude to Wendell O. Evanson, Don Kramer, and Earl Hesse for their support and encouragement over the past years.

A special thanks is extended to two fine accompanists, Mr. Thomas Chase and Mr. Douglas DeMorrow, for their continuing patience and guidance.

Last, but not least, thanks to Mom and Dad, from both of us.

You are cordially invited to a reception in the lobby immediately following the recital.
